

ODNR Fall Color Update: September 30, 2020

Condition	Location	Region
Changing	Alum Creek/Delaware/Mt. Gilead	Central
Changing	AW Marion	Central
Changing	Beaver Creek State Forest	Northeast
Changing	Buckeye Lake	Central
Changing	Buck Creek/Clifton Gorge SNP	West
Changing	Burr Oak	Southeast
Changing	Caesar Creek/Cowan Lake/Little Miami	Southwest
Changing	Deer Creek/AW Marion	Central
Changing	Eagle Creek/Triangle Lake/Kent Bog SNPs	Northeast
Changing	Findley	Northeast
Changing	Geneva/Pymatuning	Northeast
Changing	Great Seal	Southeast
Changing	Harrison Lake	Northwest
Changing	Hocking Hills/Lake Logan	Southeast
Changing	Hueston Woods	Southwest
Changing	Indian Lake	West
Changing	John Bryan	West
Changing	Malabar Farm	Northeast
Changing	Maumee Bay	Northwest
Changing	Mohican	Northeast
Changing	Paint Creek/Rocky Fork	Southwest
Changing	Pickrel Creek Wildlife Area	Northwest
Changing	Portage Lakes	Northeast
Changing	Salt Fork	Southeast
Changing	Scioto Trail (Park and Forest)	Southeast
Changing	Shawnee/Adams Lake/Chaparral Prairie SNP	Southwest
Changing	Strouds Run	Southeast
Changing	Tar Hollow (Park and Forest)	Southeast
Changing	Tranquility Wildlife Area	Southwest
Mostly Green	Dillon	East
Mostly Green	East Fork/Stonelick	Southwest
Mostly Green	Grand Lake St. Marys	Northwest
Mostly Green	Lake Hope/Zaleski State Forest	Southeast
Mostly Green	Pike Lake	Southwest

Color Condition Key: Mostly Green – no real fall color seen. Changing – still mostly green, less than 25 percent color. Near Peak – significant color showing – anywhere from 30 to 60 percent color. Peak – peak colors – as much as 85 percent showing. Fading – fading from peak conditions, and leaves falling to forest floor.